

Finding Your Place in B'nai Mitzvah...

A New Program for Interfaith Families with Kids in the Bar/Bat Mitzvah Pipeline

TIME & LOCATION

Sessions will take place in the JFGI Education Center at the JCC on 9/23, 10/7, 10/21, and 10/28 from 10-11:30am
6705 Hoover Road
Indianapolis , IN 46260
(enter through Door #1)

This program is designed to foster a comfortable setting for families to ask questions and learn more about bar/bat mitzvah, which is why we keeping the group size small. All families are welcome to attend, regardless of prior involvement in the Jewish community. Depending on demand, we may run an additional program in the spring. If you are interested, be sure to sign up and tell you friends about it as well!

Preparing for a bar/bat mitzvah can feel complicated and overwhelming for any parent...

- ⇒ This 4-session program helps interfaith families find their place in bar/bat mitzvah through learning about the lifecycle event, meeting with families who will share their prior experiences, and developing strategies to make everyone feel welcome.
- ⇒ JFGI is able to offer this program at no charge due to a generous grant from the National Center to Encourage Judaism (NCEJ) and Jewish Federations of North America (JFNA).
- ⇒ To sign up or for more information, please contact Nina Price, JFGI Director of Jewish Education Initiatives, at nprice@jfgi.org or 317-726-5450 x1245.
