

WE GIVE GRANTS TO JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS

Help interested individuals in your community develop a Jewish identity - Apply for an NCEJ Grant Today

NCEJ AT A GLANCE

A private foundation funding programs that

WELCOME NEW PEOPLE TO JUDAISM

The National Center to Encourage Judaism (NCEJ) offers grants to synagogues, and regional, national, and international groups sponsoring programs that attract more new people to Judaism from all walks of life and background.

NCEJ funds programs worldwide to engage, educate, and connect interfaith couples, people interested in conversion, and others who want to explore becoming part of the Jewish community.

For close to half a century, NCEJ has funded programs in over a dozen countries and in 34 U.S. states. Our grant priorities include an educational component and marketing to wider audiences.

PROGRAM EXAMPLES :

- Holiday how-to workshops
- A Taste of Judaism®
- Judaism 101

- Conversion classes
- Elements of Judaism
- Interfaith family engagement

- Learning Hebrew
- Holiday celebrations
- Online outreach & engagement

INTRODUCTION TO JEWISH BELIEFS & TRADITIONS

Fostering a Welcoming & Educational Pathway to Judaism

HOLIDAY PROGRAMMING

Celebrating and Connecting Newcomers to Jewish Life

INTERFAITH / INTERCULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

Connecting Interfaith Individuals to Judaism